WARRANTS, CIRCULARS, &c.

CIRCULAR, No. 797.

HOME AND FOREIGN.

Military Store Clerks.—97.

War Office, 27th December, 1862.

THE Store Officers in charge are informed by direction of Secretary Sir George, with reference to paragraph 27 of the Royal Clothing Warrant, dated the 10th of November last, that a cloak will in future be issued for Military Store Clerks, to last three years, instead of the great coat named in the above-mentioned paragraph.

Superintendents of Stores.

J. C. CAFFIN.

CIRCULAR, No. 798.

General No. 344.

War Office, 7th January, 1863.

SECRETARY Sir G. C. Lewis, having had under his consideration the system in force for the management of Garrison and Regimental Libraries and Reading Rooms, has, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commander in Chief, decided to repeal the existing Regulations, and to issue new ones calculated to afford increased facilities to the troops in the selection of books, and in the general management of Garrison Libraries and Regimental Recreation Rooms.

In order to carry out the arrangements required for this purpose, these Institutions, for the future, be placed under the charge of General and other Officers commanding in garrisons and districts, subject to the general superintendence of the General of Military Education; and it will be necessary that these Officers should give the cordial assistance and co-operation of Officers commanding regiments, Barrackmasters, Paymasters, &c., in the superintendence and internal detail of the Libraries and Recreation Rooms, in the Accounts, &c. And for the guidance of all these Officers, Regulations will be published by the Adjutant General.

It is not the intention of the Government to withdraw pecuniary aid from these Garrison Libraries; but, looking to the excellent result which has attended the Libraries of the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers, where the management has been vested in the Officers and Men, Sir G. C. Lewis is of opinion that by an extension of the system practised in those Corps an equally successful result may be obtained in the Army generally.

In future, therefore, there will be formed in each regiment a regimental committee, to be composed of subscribers chosen from all ranks; and in lieu of the supplies made hitherto, a money allowance of 27. 10s. per annum for each troop or company will be made for the provision, repair, &c. of books, the supply of newspapers, periodicals and magazines, and the pay of the Librarians; this arrangement to take effect from the 1st of April, 1863, the fees and subscriptions required being appropriated in aid of the expenses, instead of being credited as heretofore to the public.

Under the new Regulations also all Pensioner Librarians hitherto employed will, except at the stations shown below, be discontinued from the 31st March next, and Sir G. Lewis has, in consideration of their reduction under the revised system, approved of a gratuity of one month's pay being issued to each Pensioner Librarian so discontinued for each year of his actual and continuous service as such, application for payment of which should be made to this office by the Barrackmaster.

Pensioner Librarians will, however, be retained at the following Garrisons, receive pay, at the rate of 2s. a day, from the 1st April, 1863.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 230.

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

Clothing 8 (1862).

Horse Guards, S. W., 12th November, 1862.

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief is pleased to direct that the Chain Scales, or Chin Straps, shall be invariably worn under the coat both by Officers and Men, of all Regiments, on all occasions.

By Command. JAMES YORKE SCARLETT, Adj. Gen.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 234.

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

Deserters 1 (1862).

Horse Guards, S. W., 2nd December, 1862.

His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, in concurrence with the Secretary of State for War, desires it may be understood that the debt contracted by the soldier, for replacing the kit made away with by him on deserting, is to be allowed precedence over other public debts.

Care is, however, to be taken in each case that the soldier's liability to the public for fraudulently obtaining bounty on his re-enlistment, be duly noted against him, and that the amount of such liability be recovered so soon as the debt on account of his necessities is liquidated.

By Command. JAMES YORKE SCARLETT, Adj. Gen.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 236.

Addressed to Recruiting Districts and the Royal Engineers.

Recruiting 1 (1863).

Horse Guards, S. W., 1st January, 1863.

REFERRING to the General Order, No. 806, dated 14th January, 1862, which prescribes 5 feet 6 inches as the minimum standard for Stonecutters and Bricklayers for the Royal Engineers, His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for War, approves of Men, who have been brought up or served their apprenticeship to those trades, being enlisted for the above Corps at a reduced standard of 5 feet 5 inches until further orders.

By Command. JAMES YORKE SCARLETT, Adj. Gen.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 237.

Addressed to the Army at Home.

Horse Guards, S. W., 7th January, 1863.

With reference to the permission granted to men proceeding on Furlough, to wear their great coats or cloaks, and also to the special sanction given to men in certain districts to wear their great coats when off duty in cold weather, His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires that it may be distinctly understood that this indulgence is not to be made an excuse for any diminution in the established period of their duration.

Officers commanding Troops and Companies will, therefore, be careful to point out to men to whom such indulgences are granted the necessity of taking every care of their great coats, as any extra repairs that may in consequence be required will be charged against them.

Unless it can be satisfactorily shown that great coats or cloaks are subjected to some extraordinary rough usage or extraordinary wear in the public service, beyond that which garments are ordinarily exposed to, they must be made to last the prescribed period.

Previous to great coats being taken on Furlough, they are to be carefully inspected by the Officer commanding the Company, and a note taken of the state of repair in which they are; they are also to be inspected on the return of the soldiers from Furlough.

By Command. JAMES YORKE SCARLETT, Adj. Gen.

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The Intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British Subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

REGULATIONS to be observed by RETIRED GENERAL and FIELD OFFICERS whose Names are retained in the ARMY LIST.

ALL RETIRED GENERAL AND FIELD OFFICERS whose names are allowed to be retained in the ARMY LIST, whether they may have sold out since or previously to the issuing of Her Majesty's Royal Warrant of the 6th October, 1854, shall send a Notification* to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for War of their being alive on the 1st January and the 1st July of each year.

If such Notification due on the 1st January be not received at the War Office by the 1st April, and that due on the 1st July by the 1st October, it will be concluded that the Officer is deceased, and his name will be removed from the ARMY LIST.

WARRANTS, CIRCULARS, &c.

CIRCULAR, No. 799.

7369—946.

War Office, 26th January, 1863.

THE Secretary of State for War deems it expedient to issue the following Instructions for the guidance of Commanding Officers and others.

1. All crime punishable by the civil power, the commission of which is brought to the cognizance of the Commanding Officer, should forthwith be notified by the Commanding Officer to the Chief Constable of the county or borough, that the same may be duly investigated by the police, and punished by the ordinary criminal tribunals of the county or borough.

2. In cases of murder, where the accused and the deceased were both subject to the Mutiny Act, the Commanding Officer should request the magistrates forthwith to transmit a copy of depositions taken before them to the Secretary of State, that the case may (if he deems it expedient that a more speedy trial of the accused should be had than the usual course of practice allows) be prepared for trial by the Solicitor to the Department under the jurisdiction in "Homicides Act, 1862."

3. Where Commanding Officers or the men under their command are made defendants in legal proceedings, whether of a civil or criminal nature, the defence thereof must be conducted upon the sole responsibility of such defendants.

4. When, in such cases, any claim is preferred to the Secretary of State for assistance in the defence or for the reimbursement of the costs thereof, it must clearly be shown with reference to the declaration or indictment (of which a copy should be sent with the application) that the act complained of was one sanctioned by competent authority or clearly within the prescribed course of the defendant's duty.

5. Until the Secretary of State directs the Solicitor to the Department to take charge of the defence or to reimburse the cost, he will incur no responsibility whatever on account thereof.

WITH reference to the paragraph in page 2 of Circular 798, relative to the Gratuities to be granted to the Pensioner Librarians on reduction, Officers Commanding and Barrack Masters are informed by direction of Secretary Sir George C. Lewis, that the "Gratuity of one month's pay for each year of actual and continuous service as Librarian," is not to exceed in any case more than three months' pay; the application for payment being previously referred to this Office, as directed by the Circular above quoted.

EDWARD LUGARD.

CIRCULAR, No. 801.

52.—Gen. No. 1083.

HOME AND FOREIGN.

War Office, 31st January, 1863.

SIR,—With reference to the instructions contained in paragraphs 91—99 of the Royal Warrant and Regulations promulgated in Circular No. 792, dated 12th November last, for the provision of Free Kits and Regimental Necessaries, I am directed by Secretary Sir George Lewis to transmit to you the accompanying list of prices which will be charged, until further notice, for articles of Necessaries issued on repayment from Government Store. Such Necessaries should be demanded, as far as possible, in the manner directed by Article 92 of the above-named Circular, and accounted for as directed by Article 99.

Cloth, and other materials for Clothing, will be supplied as required, but should be demanded separately from articles of annual Clothing, and from articles detailed in the accompanying list, and should not be included in the annual account of Free Kits and Regimental Necessaries; and repayment should be made for such articles during the quarter in which they are received, except when received during the last month of the quarter, in which case repayment may be made in the succeeding quarter.

Necessaries now in the Free Kit Store of Regiments and Depot Battalions may, if required, be issued to the Soldier, on payment; but it is to be distinctly understood that no article of Necessaries provided from Government Store is to be issued (except

THE attention of the Secretary of State for War having been directed during a recent trial to the case of appropriation of Cloth by a Regimental Master Tailor, Commanding Officers are reminded that they are responsible for the appropriation of all Clothing Materials and Stores issued for the use of their regiments, and such quantities as are not used in making the garments should be handed over to the Quartermaster and accounted for in the annual requisitions as remaining in Store.

In the event of a Master Tailor appropriating any saving of material in the cutting of the garments to his own personal use or disposing of the same otherwise than as above prescribed, he will render himself liable to be tried by Court Martial under the 17th clause of the Mutiny Act.

War Office, 9th February, 1863.

WITH reference to the 2nd Clause of the Regulations and Restrictions annexed to the Royal Warrant of 30th October, 1861 (W. O. Cir. 792), Secretary Sir George C. Lewis desires that it may be understood that the pecuniary allowances granted as compensation in lieu of furlough on re-engagement, at the Foreign Stations named therein, are not issuable to men who re-engage after the Regiment has been placed under orders to return home. In such cases furloughs will be granted as soon after the arrival of the Regiment in this country as circumstances will permit.

War Office, 9th February, 1863.

NOTWITHSTANDING the instructions contained in Circular No. 403, dated 21st March, 1859, a copy of which is annexed,* instances have recently occurred in which expenditure has been sanctioned, by General Officers commanding abroad, for services which the Secretary of State does not consider of sufficient urgency to have justified the omission of a previous reference for his consideration.

Sir George C. Lewis, therefore, in drawing attention to Circular No. 403, requests that General Officers will observe that it is no sufficient justification that the object is most desirable, or even necessary; but that they will limit the exercise of their powers of sanctioning expenditure to really urgent cases, admitting of no delay, as prescribed in that Circular.

GENERAL ORDER. No. 815.

Instruction of Musketry 4 (1862).

Horse Guards, 16th October, 1862.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS the General Commanding in Chief has much satisfaction in publishing the Annual Report of the Inspector General of Musketry for the year 1861-2,† which he looks upon as affording gratifying evidence of the increased attention paid by all concerned to the system of rifle training of the troops, initiated by Major General Hay (under the auspices of the late Field Marshal Commanding in Chief) in 1854, and since so ably superintended by him.

His Royal Highness, however, finds it necessary again to advert to the want of care in the selection of the Non-commissioned Officers sent to the Schools of Musketry, many of whom consequently fail to obtain certificates, chiefly from deficiency in educational acquirements, although the standard is not a high one;—

To point to the number of non-exercised men, who, though fewer than in former years, are still numerous;—

And to forbid, for the reasons explained in paragraphs 94, 95 and 96 of the Report, the practice which prevails in some Corps of exempting men of weak vision from rifle practice, though performing their other military duties.

The General Commanding in Chief desires also to call particular attention to the last three paragraphs of Major General Hay's Report. His Royal Highness is surprised to find that doubts, or misunderstanding, should exist in any quarter on the subject therein adverted to; and has directed the following extract from the Circular Memorandum of the 26th March, 1857, to be embodied in this General Order, for the information and guidance of General Officers commanding Divisions, Districts and Stations, and of Officers commanding Regiments, Depot Battalions and Depôts:—

"Field Officers should render themselves conversant with the theory and practice of musketry; and it is more especially incumbent on Commanding Officers, who (and not the rifle instructors) are responsible for the efficiency of their men, to acquaint themselves with this most important part of the soldier's training, by careful study of the book of regulations, by giving their personal superintendence to the drill and practice of the companies under the instructor, and by availing themselves of the assistance and information to be derived on the subject from the District Inspectors of Musketry at their periodical visits; and His Royal Highness looks to General Officers of Divisions, Districts and Brigades, to see that all do their duty on this, as on every other, head of service."

By Command of HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS,
THE GENERAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF.
